PART 1	PART 2	PART 3	TOTAL
16	20	14	50

This document consists of 9 printed pages and 3 blank pages.

PART 1: LETTER WRITING

You are advised to spend about 30 minutes on this part of the paper.

Write a letter of about one and a half pages in length.

Your best friend has been living in another country for the past two years and you recently got a letter from him/her asking you how you have been.

Write a letter to your friend and tell him/her how you have been doing since he/she left. Mention your interest of visiting that country, state when and why you wish to visit.

You will receive up to 8 marks for content, relevance and development, and up to 8 marks for language, style and accuracy of your letter.

[Total: 16 marks]

A series of horizontal dotted lines for writing.

PART 2: COMPOSITION

You are advised to spend about 40 minutes on this part of the paper.

Choose one of the topics below and write a composition of about 150-200 words (about a page in length).

Question One

Write a story based on these words:

“Winning that competition was the biggest achievement of my life. It was the best award I had ever received and I stood with my family so tall and proud taking pictures.”

Question Two

Describe the biggest surprise you have ever had and how it helped you.

Question Three

Learning through the media (radio, television and online) is better than learning in the classroom. Discuss.

You will receive up to 10 marks for content, relevance and development, and up to 10 marks for language, style and accuracy of your composition.

PART 3: PRACTICAL WRITING

You are advised to spend about 20 minutes on this part of the paper.

Your school is full of litter (paper, broken bottles, plastics, metal, used face masks, etc.).

Draw a poster and warn the learners about the effects/dangers of littering. Suggest better ways of disposing of and managing the litter.

You will receive up to 4 marks for the presentation and 10 marks for the title and content of the poster.
