ESWATINI GENERAL CERTIFICATE OF SECONDARY EDUCATION

Broad Guidelines

The Ministry of Education and Training is committed, in accordance with the National Policy Statement on Education, to provide a Curriculum and Assessment System (Form 4 and Form 5) so that at the completion of secondary education, learners will

- be equipped to meet the changing needs of the Nation, and
- have attained internationally acceptable standards.

Eswatini's National Education Policy Directives

EGCSE syllabuses for studies in Form 4 and Form 5 will individually, and collectively, enable learners to develop essential skills and provide a broad learning experience which

- inculcates values and attitudes as well as knowledge and understanding,
- encourages respect for human rights and freedom of speech,
- respects the values and beliefs of others, relating to issues of gender, culture and religion,
- develops desirable attitudes and behaviour towards the environment,
- provides insight and understanding of global issues which affect quality of life in Eswatini and elsewhere, e.g., the AIDS pandemic; global warming; misdistribution of wealth; and technological advances.

The National Curriculum for Form 4 and Form 5

Learners will be given opportunities to develop essential skills which will overlap across the entire range of subjects studied. These skills are listed below.

INTRODUCTION

The Eswatini General Certificate of Secondary Education (EGCSE) syllabuses are designed as two-year courses for examination in Form 5. The rationale for First Language SiSwati is based on siSwati being one of the official languages of Eswatini, the other being English. The syllabus aims to develop competence in the use of the siSwati language and an understanding of siSwati literature and culture. It provides the siSwati language skills necessary for employment, the world of work and life in general. In addition, it enables learners to proceed to further qualification.

The syllabus aims to encourage learners to enjoy and appreciate the variety of the SiSwati language and to enable them to communicate accurately, appropriately and effectively in writing. As part of the course learners will study Modern Literature, Traditional Literature and Culture with the aim of enabling them to enjoy the experience of reading literature and to understand and respond to a variety of literary texts.

All EGCSE syllabuses follow a general pattern. The main sections are:

Curriculum Content

AIMS

The aims of the syllabus are the same for all learners. These aims are set out below and describe the educational purposes of a course in First Language siSwati for the EGCSE Examination. They are not listed in order of priority.

The aims are to enable learners to:

1. use standard siSwati to communicate accurately, appropriately and effectively in writing;
2. understand and respond appropriately to what they read and experience;
3. enjoy and appreciate the variety of the siSwati language;
4. develop self-esteem, confidence, pride and appreciation of the national cultural heritage;
5. develop knowledge of cultural practices and their implications;
6. develop a culture of critical reading;
7. complement other areas of study by developing skills of a more general application - drawing of inferences, ordering of facts, presentation of opinion, detection of bias;
8. promote personal development and understanding of themselves and others.

ASSESSMENT OBJECTIVES

A description of each of the Assessment Objectives in First Language SiSwati follows.

Learners are assessed on their ability to:

1. express ideas, facts and opinions clearly and effectively using a range of appropriate vocabulary;
2. understand and convey information;
3. handle spelling, punctuation and grammar accurately;
4. understand, order and present facts, ideas and opinions;
5. evaluate information and select what is relevant to specific purposes;
6. show a sense of audience and awareness of style in both formal and informal situations of their own and others' making;
7. recognise and appreciate ways in which writers use language;
8. recognise and appreciate other ways in which writers achieve their effects (e.g. characterisation);
9. respond to text critically, sensitively and in detail;
10. use textual evidence to illustrate and support points of view;
11. recognise and respond to linguistic devices, grammatical features;
12. show creativity and persuasiveness in their writing;
13. demonstrate a clear control over internal cohesion and overall coherence in continuous prose writing;
14. communicate a sensitive and informed personal response to what is read.
15. recognise and respond to literary features (e.g., similes, metaphors, interjectives, etc.).

Section A: Reading and Directed Writing (40 marks)

Question 1 (15 marks) Reading Comprehension

Assessment Objectives: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 14)

A reading exercise based on a passage of about 500 - 650 words in which candidates will be required to answer a series of questions testing more detailed comprehension.

The text may take one of the following forms but not limited to: narrative, dialogue, letter, newspaper or magazine articles. The text may be original or adapted from newspaper or magazine articles, novels, dramas and short stories.

Question 2 (25 marks) Reading and Directed Writing.

Assessment Objectives: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, 12, 13 and 14

A reading exercise based on a passage of about 600 - 700 words. The passage may be an original text which may be a narrative, informative, factual, descriptive type. Texts may also be adapted from newspaper or magazine articles, novels dramas and short stories.

Candidates will be required to respond to two tasks:

Task one is a summary question (10 marks). The candidates' response should be between 60 – 90 words.

Candidates will receive up to 5 marks for points and up to 5 marks for summary skills. Candidates answer a selective summary using their words as far as possible.

Task two is directed writing (15 marks). The candidates' response should be between 120 – 180 words.

Candidates may be required to write either a letter (business and friendly), a report, a speech, an article (newspaper and magazine), a diary, a dialogue or a continuation of the story in the passage.

Candidates will receive up to 8 marks for content (relevance and development) and up to 7 marks for language (style and accuracy).

Section B: Grammar (30 marks)

Assessment Objectives: 3 and 11

Candidates will answer two questions worth 15 marks each. The questions will be testing their understanding of grammatical formation and its usage.

Question 3: Some parts of this question will be based on extracts from one of the reading passages in question 1 and 2 to assess grammar in context.

Question 4: This question will not be based on the passages but will have general questions on grammar.

Paper 3 Literature and Culture (2 hours) consisting of 80 marks.

This paper consists of two sections.

Section A: Modern Literature (60 marks)

Assessment objectives: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12, 13, 14 and 15

Depending on the nature of questions, set question can either have a stimulus / short prompt or not. Note that in this section there will always be an essay question. Each question will be worth 20 marks.

Candidates will be tested on their ability to discuss features of the literary text. They will be required to provide a critical interpretation of aspects of a set poem drawing on literary skills, personal response and experience. There will be context-based questions as well as essay questions. The questions will deal with content and personal responses to matters such as character, setting, theme, style and language usage.

Section B: Traditional Literature and Culture (20 marks)

Assessment objectives: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12, 13, 14 and 15

This section consists of two questions. Candidates are expected to answer only one question. Each of the two questions will entail both Traditional Literature as well as Culture, based on a 50/50 scale. The following is the distribution of marks and structure of the sub-questions:

- 5 marks –proverbs / idioms - Part(a)
- 5 marks - traditional poetry – Part (b)
- 10 marks - culture based on one topic or related topics (c)

Candidates will be tested on their ability to analyse, evaluate and trace the development of cultural practices in their communities, excluding the modern literature poetic devices analysis. They will also be required to evaluate, analyze and trace the historical background in traditional literary works including usage of proverbs and idioms
